HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

GENERAL

This Company is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of its employees, so far as is reasonably practicable. We also fully accept our responsibility for other persons whose health and safety may be affected by our activities. We will take steps to ensure our statutory duties are met at all times to include the provision of adequate resources to protect both our employees and others who may be affected by our work activities.

Every new employee will be given Health and Safety guidance when they join the Company and each employee will be given refresher information, instruction and training as is necessary to enable the safe performance of work activities.

Adequate facilities and arrangements will be maintained to enable employees to raise issues of Health and Safety.

Competent people will be appointed to assist us in meeting our statutory duties including, where appropriate, specialists from outside the Company. We retain the services of Michael J Errington CMIOSH MIIRSM to provide advice and guidance to the organisation.

Each individual has a legal obligation to take reasonable care for his or her own health and safety and for the safety of others who may be affected by his or hers acts or omissions.

The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment and co-operation from all levels of management and employees within our company.

The Company will ensure through the role of the Director and Site Supervisors that financial provision will be made to ensure that health, safety and welfare standards will be maintained within the organisation. This is to include that sufficient time and resources are available together with an adequate lead in time for works to be carried out.

RESPONSIBILITY

Directors will through delegation of duties to the Site Supervisors ensure that the following is implemented:

- ◆ Actively seek the cooperation and suggestions for improvements from all employees in relation to our Health and Safety Policy;
- ◆ Provide adequate information, instruction and training to ensure so far as is reasonably practicable the health and safety at work of employees;
- ◆ Provide and maintain a safe and healthy working environment, with statutory obligations as a minimum requirement;
